Confidential.

Fort St. George,
Madras, 5th November 1923.

Dear Mr. Banerji,

I am in receipt of your confidential d.o.letter No. M. 243 dated the 3rd November. I shall be very glad indeed to have a personal discussion of the questions you have referred to and on any other matters on which there might be differences of opinion, and the 12th November would suit me very well indeed. But going through the whole of your letter my conclusion is that as to the contents and drafting of the agreement it may be left to an impartial agency as suggested in the last paragraph of your letter who would see to the interests of both sides, and I have not the slightest objection to choose Mr. Gebbie as such adviser. In order to avoid delay, he might be communicated with at once if you are willing to accede to that course. I think the very best plan would be to lay it down that any agreement that Mr. Gebbie may prepare (with the aid of one of the legal drafting staff of the Government of India) should be adopted or rejected as a whole. If both the Governments accept the agreements suggested by him, the agreement might be ratified and engrossed; otherwise we shall be relegated to our ori-
